The Stanford EdLEADers program is designed to address the opportunities and challenges of system-level education leaders nationwide and equip them to effect innovation and systemic improvement in their districts. Through a mix of job-embedded, individual and team-based assignments, participants will learn new frameworks and skills to positively impact student outcomes.

Key Benefits:
- Stanford values: innovation, intellectual rigor, and teamwork
- 100% online program, delivered in a flexible format
- Access to a nationwide peer cohort
- Discussions with Stanford faculty through live sessions
- Professional Certificate from Stanford GSE and GSB

"I am thrilled by the course offerings, and feel that the curriculum is current, relevant and immediately applicable."

Eesir Kaur, Director of Schools | Rocketship Public Schools

Cynthia Ambrose | Deputy Superintendent, Charleston County School District

Tuition and Deadlines:
The $15,000 tuition fee for the 16-month Stanford EdLEADers program covers all course fees, materials and access to an online learning portal. For our fall 2020 cohort, apply early to secure a discounted tuition price of $9,500. Applications will be reviewed on a rolling basis with earlier submissions receiving greater consideration for admission and tuition subsidies.
